

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

August 10, 2015

Erica Perez

Media Relations

Email eperez@cci-us.com

Website www.cci-us.com

CCI HIRES FRANK ERBITI-VP CHANNEL SALES

San Antonio-based CCI adds Frank Erbiti to a growing management team

San Antonio, TX, August 10, 2015– Competitive Companies, Inc. (OTCBB:CCOP) announced today that Frank Erbiti has joined the company as its V.P. of Channel Sales. Erbiti brings more than 20 years of global communications experience, including 24 years as Director of Channel Sales and V.P of Sales Operation with AT&T.

“We are extremely fortunate to have had the opportunity to attract the management caliber of Frank Erbiti and take advantage of his vast experience in the telecommunications industry,” said William Gray, CEO of CCI. “He’s had an exemplary career at AT&T and we’re confident he’ll replicate that at CCI.”

While at AT&T, Frank led teams that developed and managed over 1,000 Direct Sales Agents and generated more than $1Billion in telecom sales. He joins a growing team of sales and management talent with the skills to maximize the potential of CCI’s unique technology and to dramatically grow its revenues. Among managing the company’s channel sales division, he will oversee all sales policies, objectives and sales initiatives for the Company’s entire telecommunication operation. He will round out an accomplished team of technical and sales management talent involved in developing the company’s growing portfolio of high capacity broadband products and services.

CCI, through its wholly subsidiary, Capaciti Networks, utilizes a state of the art online quoting system called WyQuote to attract more than 100,000 direct telecom agents responsible for more than 60% of the $75 Billion commercial Internet access market. Capaciti sells carrier grade commercial Internet services utilizing the Company’s “Diamond Ring” network developed by its sister operation called Wytec International, Inc. The Diamond Ring represents one of the nation’s first millimeter wave networks with fiber-optic like speeds of over 1 Gigabit of broadband service to its customers and has already established record breaking wireless speeds to the Small Medium and Enterprise (SME) market.

Frank Erbiti
VP Channel Sales

About Competitive Companies, Inc.

Competitive Companies, Inc., founded in 1998, is a Nevada-based corporation with corporate offices in San Antonio, Texas. The Company’s primary business focus is acquiring and utilizing next generation fixed and mobile wireless broadband technologies. Wytec International, Inc., a subsidiary of CCI builds carrier grade millimeter wave networks for commercial Internet services to small, medium and enterprise solutions and markets the services through a sister company called Capaciti Networks Inc. Additionally, Wytec has filed a provisional patent for its unique Small Cell Node called the LPN-16 and is in discussions with multiple enterprise customers to commercialize this technology. Multiple test have proven to be very successful with confirmation from several independent engineers reporting on the viability of the LPN-16.

Forward-Looking Statements

Competitive Companies, Inc., founded in 1998, is a Nevada-based corporation with corporate offices in San Antonio, Texas. The Company's primary business focus is acquiring and utilizing next generation fixed and mobile wireless broadband technologies. Wytec International, Inc., a subsidiary of CCI builds carrier grade millimeter wave networks for commercial Internet services to small, medium and enterprise solutions and markets the services through a sister company called Capaciti Networks Inc. Additionally, Wytec has filed a provisional patent for its unique Small Cell Node called the LPN-16 and is in discussions with multiple enterprise customers to commercialize this technology. Multiple test have proven to be very successful with confirmation from several independent engineers reporting on the viability of the LPN-16.